

The business coverage and service that members deserve

For more than 75 years, we've been insuring Canadian businesses, just like yours. We understand the time and effort it takes to build a successful business. Naturally, you want to protect it. At Co-operators, we'll work with you to assess your specific needs, so you get the right coverage for you, your employees, and your business.

Choose from our customized solutions

No other business is quite like yours. That's why our business insurance packages can be personalized to meet your needs. And, with that, you'll enjoy the flexibility to change your coverage as your business grows. Your coverage options include:

- Enhanced Commercial coverage: This exclusive Commercial Advantage Endorsement provides more than 30 additional coverage extensions and is included for members with property coverage.
- Business Property: Protection against loss, damage or theft, as it relates to your property, contents, stock and other items, such as leased property.
- Liability: Protection in the event that your business is found legally responsible for injuries caused to another person, or for damages caused to their property.
- Loss of Income from Business Interruption: Protection against lost income or extra expenses while your business is closed or temporarily relocated due to an insured loss.
- Cyber Guard Select: Protection for sensitive business information—including stored personal data for customers, employees and associates—in the event of a cyber breach.
- Commercial Auto: Protection for light and heavy commercial vehicles (such as cars, vans, pickups, trailers and heavy vehicles) that carry goods and materials for use, distribution and delivery.

Let's protect and grow your business. Together.

With Co-operators, along with the great value of the Member Benefits Program, you'll get expert advice and personalized service from a team that works to understand your unique business needs. You'll also enjoy the convenience of business insurance and financial solutions all in one place.
